No one, including a person who has power of attorney, may cast a vote for another person.

RETURNING YOUR VOTING PAPERS

- You must make sure your declaration and voting papers are returned on time.
- The easiest way to return your voting papers from overseas is to upload them online at vote.nz
- VOTING PAPERS CANNOT BE RETURNED BY EMAIL.

UPLOAD YOUR VOTING PAPERS ONLINE

PREFERRED OPTION

Your uploaded voting papers must be received by 7pm (NZ time) on Saturday, 7 November 2026.

1. Select your saved files. If you completed your voting papers by hand, scan or photograph your declaration and ballot paper as separate images.
2. Check that the images are complete and clear, and that they are readable and show the entire declaration and ballot papers
3. Visit vote.nz/overseas to upload them.
   NOTE: Your voting papers will be received and processed in a secure area by an appointed electoral official.

RETURN YOUR VOTING PAPERS TO AN OVERSEAS VOTING PLACE

Your voting envelope must be received by 4pm (local time) on Friday, 6 November 2026 (subject to local holidays)

You can post or hand-deliver your completed voting papers to an overseas voting place. Check vote.nz/overseas to confirm which locations are accepting voting papers and when they must be received, as times will vary.

1. Place your ballot paper in an envelope.
2. Write your 7-digit declaration number on the outside of the envelope and seal it.
3. Put the sealed envelope containing your ballot paper and completed declaration form inside a second envelope and seal it.
4. Address the second envelope to your nearest overseas voting place and write your electorate and "Overseas VPs" on the front.
5. Post it with correct postage or hand-deliver to your nearest overseas voting place before the overseas voting place closes.

NEED HELP TO VOTE?

You may ask someone who is with you to help complete your voting papers if you are blind or have low vision, have difficulty reading or writing or have difficulty with the English language.

The person who you ask to help may assist you in marking your declaration or ballot paper according to your instructions.

Dictation Voting Service: If you are blind, partially blind or have a physical disability which prevents you from marking the ballot paper without assistance you can use the Dictation Voting Service.

For more information about the Dictation Voting Service and opening hours visit vote.nz

PRIVACY AND YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We collect your personal information to make sure your vote is counted correctly. Your personal information is kept separate from your voting papers, and your vote is kept secret.

More information on how the Electoral Commission handles your personal information and how to request access or corrections can be found at vote.nz/privacy-and-security
